

Federal Income Tax Status of The Church Pension Fund Benefits

The General Rule:

In accordance with Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code, all benefits paid from retirement and disability plans sponsored by The Church Pension Fund (CPF) to retired and disabled clergy have been designated as a housing allowance in 2020. The amount of housing allowance that you may exclude from gross income for federal income tax purposes cannot exceed the lowest amount of:

- (1) actual housing expenses (the total amount you actually spend in a calendar year for items that directly relate to renting or providing for your primary home),
- (2) the fair rental value of your primary home (including furnishings) plus the cost of the utilities, or
- (3) your retirement and disability income provided by CPF plus any other compensation earned from an Episcopal employer which has been properly designated as a housing allowance

CPF has passed a similar resolution for 2019.

For Surviving Spouses and Children:

The housing allowance exclusion is applicable to CPF benefits paid to the clergy who earned them. Tax law does not allow a housing allowance for surviving spouses or dependents.

How to Calculate:

While further details are available in IRS Publication 517 and the 2020 Clergy Tax Preparation Guide for 2019 Returns, the following list may assist you in determining the total actual expenses that relate to renting or providing your primary home:

- Mortgage payments, both principal and interest*
- Real estate taxes and special assessments*
- Fees paid for acquiring home titles, mortgages, etc.
- Home improvements and repairs
- Cost of moving your home furnishings
- Home furnishings that are primary and essential
- Fire and home liability insurance premiums
- Maintenance and upkeep of property including landscaping
- Utilities—electric, gas, oil, water, basic telephone, trash, cable television base rate (not including premium channels)
- Rental payments for home, garage, storage for household items, furnishings, etc.

Resettlement Benefit May Qualify:

We strongly recommend that you keep good records, including all of your calculations and expense documents related to renting or providing your primary home. You may need them if questions or challenges to your housing allowance develop.

How to Report:

The amount you decide to exclude from your gross income is not shown on your federal tax return because it is an “exclusion,” not a “deduction.” The total of all pension benefits received during the year (shown on Box 1 of your Form 1099-R) should be copied to Line 4a of your Federal Form 1040. The taxable portion of these benefits, determined by subtracting the amount you are excluding for housing purposes from the total, should be shown on Line 4b of your Federal Form 1040. Line 4b should not be left blank; if all amounts received are used for housing purposes, you should enter a zero (0) on that line. Please note that you may receive Form 1099-R and/or Form W-2 from Northern Trust and/or Liberty Mutual as they are the paying agents for the retirement benefit and disability plans sponsored by CPF. You may also receive a Form 1099-R from Fidelity Investments and/or Church Life Insurance Corporation if you had any distributions from an Episcopal Church Retirement Savings Plan (“RSVP plan”), as they are the paying agents for that plan. In addition, for any distributions from the RSVP processed by Fidelity Investments, please contact Fidelity Investments to notify them that your distribution is eligible for the housing allowance.

SECA Tax:

Social Security Self-Employment tax (also called SECA tax) is not applicable to any qualified retirement benefit payments received from plans sponsored by CPF. However, if you have other earnings from self-employment after retirement (from the church or other sources), you may be required to pay SECA tax on those earnings and also on the fair rental value of housing provided by a church or other employer.
