Turning the Tide on Health Disparities: A Discussion on Social Determinants of Health

REGISTER HERE

Thursday, May 25, 2023
1:00 PM to 2:00 PM ET

The United States healthcare system spends a disproportionate amount of money on clinical care, often neglecting the social determinants of health - underlying factors that contribute to an individual's health and wellbeing. Unfortunately, many poor, underserved communities suffer from weaker social determinants of health, which directly correlates with inferior health outcomes.

We invite you to join us for the next conversation in our Insights & Ideas series where you will hear from industry leaders who have developed strategies that make grants or investments directly addressing the social determinants of health and improving health outcomes for the poor.
