

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to share with you the Church Pension Group (CPG) Report to General Convention. To say that much has changed since 2018 is an understatement, but through good times and bad we have remained true to our purpose, which is to support the clergy and lay employees of The Episcopal Church in their calling to spread the gospel.

We have done this by, among other actions, continuing to pursue affordable, quality healthcare options, maintaining the strength of our pension programs, and examining pension parity.

Our report features videos from several of our managers and trustees, including our Board Chair-elect, Canon Kathryn McCormick, who shares some of her goals and hopes for the future. And don't miss Roberta "Tutu" DuTeil, the 100-year-old surviving spouse of the Rev. Claude DuTeil. She offers a compelling illustration of why our long-term focus and enduring financial strength matter.

We will miss seeing you at General Convention, but I hope this report gives you a sense of our commitment to serve the Church. For more information about CPG, please visit our General Convention resource hub at www.cpg.org/GC80.

Faithfully,

Mary Kate Wold
CEO and President
