CHURCH PENSION GROUP TO HOST VIRTUAL CONVERSATION ON GLOBAL FAITH-BASED INVESTORS AND THE CLIMATE CRISIS

NEW YORK, NY—September 6, 2023—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced that it will host a virtual conversation entitled, Global Faith-Based Investors and the Climate Crisis, on Wednesday, September 20, 2023 from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM ET. Attendees will discover the connection between faith-based beliefs and sustainable investment activity that positively addresses the climate crisis.

“Climate change is in the news every day, from rising sea levels to wildfires,” said Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President of CPG. “Amidst this backdrop, and the United Nations Climate Week, we’re excited to bring together global industry leaders who will discuss their strategies around faith-based investing to help counter climate change.”

The event is part of CPG’s ongoing Insights & Ideas series of discussions on socially responsible investing (SRI). Individuals interested in attending the event can register at cpg.org/Insights&Ideas.

The panelists will include Sofia Bartholdy, Responsible Investment Integration Director at Church Commissioners for England; Mathew Jensen, Director of Investment Solutions at FaithInvest; Emlyn Palmer, Head of Sustainable Investing at Albourne; and Christopher Rowe, Managing Director at CPG.

Videos and presentations from prior Insights & Ideas discussions focused on climate change, investing in economically disadvantaged communities, faithful investing, positive impact investing, and sustainable investing and can be viewed at cpg.org/Insights&Ideas.
