

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHURCH PENSION GROUP TO HOST CONVERSATION WITH THE CHURCH INSURANCE COMPANIES

NEW YORK, NY—March 28, 2022—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced that it will host a webinar conversation with representatives of The Church Insurance Companies (cpg.org/CIC) to discuss and answer questions about property and casualty coverage support for the Church.

The webinar will take place on Friday, April 8, 2022, from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM ET. All clergy, lay employees, volunteers, and lay leaders who serve the Church are invited to register at cpg.org/CICconversation.

“We are pleased to host a conversation and answer questions about a line of our business that is critical to the future well-being of Church institutions,” said Frank Armstrong, Chief Operating Officer of CPG. “We know that property and casualty contracts are complicated and we are hoping that this conversation will help demystify things and build on the trust we work hard to earn every day.”

The panel, which will be moderated by Frank Armstrong, will feature Kelly Best, Manager, Billing & Collections and Agency Licensing, The Church Insurance Company of Vermont; Steve Follos, Senior Vice President and General Manager, The Church Insurance Agency Corporation; Christopher Rourke, Senior Vice President and General Manager, The Church Insurance Companies; and Kevin Smith, Director, Property Claims, The Church Insurance Company.

In advance of the webinar, individuals are encouraged to view the Church Insurance website cpg.org/CIC.

CPG has hosted a number of webinars in an effort to help the Church better understand CPG’s business and operations and address topics of interest to the Church. Individuals are encouraged to view past webinars with senior leaders of CPG who have engaged in conversations on topics ranging from pension parity to racial reconciliation and socially responsible investing. Past webinars can be viewed on CPG's YouTube channel.
