CHURCH PENSION GROUP RELEASES ITS 2026 ANNUAL REPORT

NEW YORK, NY—July 8, 2026—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced the release of its 2026 Annual Report (cpg.org/annualreport2026). Through a series of videos, articles, and graphics, the Annual Report highlights how CPG is listening to voices across The Episcopal Church to inform its future work.

“We are pleased to share our 2026 Annual Report, which reflects our progress over the past year and how we’re listening, adapting, and strengthening our support to better serve those who serve The Episcopal Church,” said Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President of CPG. “I invite readers to learn how our businesses continue to meet the evolving needs of our clients as CPG remains financially disciplined and strong.”

The Annual Report also provides updates on CPG’s businesses, investment performance, and financial strength. In addition, it includes the Denominational Health Plan 2025 Annual Report (cpg.org/DHP), which outlines the work of The Episcopal Church Medical Trust to manage rising healthcare costs, maintain equitable churchwide pricing, and provide access to high-quality healthcare coverage for eligible clergy and lay employees, and their eligible dependents.
