CHURCH PENSION GROUP HOSTS CONVERSATION ON ITS WORK IN SUPPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

NEW YORK, NY—November 3, 2026—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization and publisher that serves The Episcopal Church, announced that it will host a virtual conversation with senior leaders to discuss its work in support of The Episcopal Church. The event will take place via Zoom on Tuesday, November 17, 2026, from 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM ET. All clergy, lay employees, General Convention deputies, volunteers, and lay leaders who serve the Church are invited to register at cpg.org/CPGConversation.

CPG's Chief Church Relations Officer, the Rev. Canon Arlette Benoit Joseph, will moderate the conversation. The event will also feature several of CPG's senior leaders, including Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President; Frank Armstrong, Chief Operating Officer; Michael Hood, Chief Investment Officer; and Patty Favreau, Chief Communications Officer.

"We are pleased to host this conversation, which is an opportunity to discuss topics raised in our 2026 Annual Report. We look forward to providing greater insight into a variety of strategic issues that impact our work and The Episcopal Church," Ms. Wold said. "I encourage anyone interested in learning more about the Church Pension Group to join us for this important conversation."

Individuals can submit questions in advance to corpcomm@cpg.org and are encouraged to view CPG's 2026 Annual Report (cpg.org/annualreport2026). Along with a summary of CPG's investment performance, readers will find highlights of the many ways CPG's products, programs, and services assist the people and institutions of The Episcopal Church.
