

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHURCH PENSION GROUP HOSTS CONVERSATION ON ITS VISION, FINANCES, AND WORK

NEW YORK, NY—November 4, 2025—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced that it will host a virtual conversation with its senior leaders to discuss its vision, finances, and work. The event will take place on Tuesday, November 25, 2025, from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM ET. All clergy, lay employees, volunteers, and lay leaders who serve the Church are invited to register at cpg.org/CPGconversation.

CPG's Chief Church Relations Officer, the Rev. Canon Arlette Benoit Joseph, will moderate the conversation. The conversation will also feature several of CPG's senior leaders, including Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President; Frank Armstrong, Chief Operating Officer; Michael Hood, Chief Investment Officer; and Ellen Taggart, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer.

"We are pleased to host this conversation following the release of our Annual Report earlier this year," said Ms. Wold. "It will offer individuals an opportunity to gain a clearer understanding of our operations, finances, and work, and allow us to share insights and provide clarity around our businesses and investment performance. I encourage individuals interested in learning more about the Church Pension Group to join us for this important conversation."

Individuals can submit questions in advance to corpcomm@cpg.org and are encouraged to view CPG's 2025 Annual Report (cpg.org/annualreport2025). Along with a summary of CPG's investment performance, readers will find highlights of the many ways CPG's products, programs, and services assist the people and institutions of The Episcopal Church.
