Are You As Prepared for Retirement As You Think?

Dear Friend:

As a clergy person, you keep a busy schedule. But always making time to minister to others may mean putting your retirement readiness on hold.

Take action now by scheduling a 45-minute consultation with a Church Pension Group (CPG) financial education specialist. The sooner you take action, the more you may benefit from the compounding effect of making informed choices today.

It Could Make a Difference to Your Future

CPG financial education specialists understand the unique decisions clergy face when planning for retirement and making the most of their benefits. Meeting with an experienced team member may leave you better informed about:

- Your housing allowance calculation
- The potential impact the RSP could have on your retirement savings
- Reviewing the earnings reflected in your Social Security record
- The pension benefits you may be eligible to receive

Let's Chat

Whether you've just had a life event that impacts your finances or you're seeking a tune-up, schedule a call now at cpg.org/letschat. Even if you have had a conversation before, it's always good to check in regularly. Booking a call takes less than a minute.
