Take Steps to Maximize Your Retirement Wealth

For many people like you who serve The Episcopal Church, pensions alone may not be enough to fully fund retirement. To help bridge the gap, consider using The Episcopal Church Retirement Savings Plan (RSVP), administered by The Church Pension Fund, with Fidelity Investments as the plan's recordkeeper.

This workplace savings plan enabling you to save your own dollars for retirement offers tax advantages to help your money grow efficiently.

The RSVP is a practical way to take control of your financial future. With accessible tools and personalized support, it's a simple step that can make a lasting impact, helping you move forward with clarity and confidence.

With the RSVP:

- Save on your terms. Decide how much to contribute and which option to invest your savings in.
- Choose smart tax options. Contribute pre-tax to lower your taxable income today, or use the Roth feature for potentially tax-free growth and withdrawals later.
- Enjoy special perks for clergy. At retirement, clergy may be able to treat RSVP withdrawals as eligible for the clergy housing allowance exclusion.
