Please complete the sections below that are applicable to your state income tax withholding elections. If you do not return this completed form, we will automatically withhold state income tax from your distributions based on the default requirements for your state of residency. You may elect to not have state income taxes withheld only if your state of residence allows such an election.

Please note the following:
The completion of this form is optional for clergy members receiving a distribution from their 403(b) tax-deferred annuity (i.e. RSVP, SVO, TSA) but is required of clergy for distributions from any other account.

Section A: Mandatory State Income Tax Withholding

Complete this section if you legally reside in one of the states listed below. If you do not legally reside in one of the states listed below, please proceed to Section B.

The following states generally require income taxes to be withheld from non-periodic annuity distributions made to an individual if federal income taxes are withheld from those payments:

- Arkansas
- California
- Connecticut¹
- Delaware
- Iowa
- Kansas
- Maine
- Maryland
- Massachusetts
- Michigan²
- Nebraska
- North Carolina
- Oklahoma
- Oregon
- Vermont
- Virginia

If you legally reside in the District of Columbia, 8.95% of your non-periodic annuity distribution will be withheld if you receive a full distribution of your account balance.

Although withholding is generally required if federal income taxes are withheld, some states allow residents to affirmatively elect to NOT have state income taxes withheld even if you have elected federal income tax withholding. If you reside in one of the following states, you may elect to not have state income taxes withheld by electing “No, do not withhold state income tax” below:

Arkansas, California, Delaware, Michigan², North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon or Vermont

State of residence for tax purposes:

☐ Yes, withhold state income tax for one of the states listed below

Or ☐ No, do not withhold state income tax

I understand that I may check this box only if I reside in one of the states listed above or if I have elected not to have federal tax withheld.

¹ Residents must complete and return the actual State of Connecticut Form CT-W4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or may elect to have 6.99% state income tax withheld.
² Residents born before 1946 are generally not required to have income tax withheld on annuity payments and should complete Section B.
If you reside in any of the mandatory states and are subject to state income tax withholding, you must check the corresponding box below for your state of residence.

- Arkansas: Withhold at 3% of federal taxable distribution
- California: Withhold at 10% of federal income tax amount withheld
- Connecticut: Withhold at 6.99% of federal taxable distribution
- Delaware: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- District of Columbia: Withhold at 8.95% of federal taxable distribution (only if full distribution/otherwise withholding is voluntary)
- Iowa: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- Kansas: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- Maine: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- Maryland: Withhold at 7.75% of federal taxable distribution
- Massachusetts: Withhold at 5.05% of federal taxable distribution
- Michigan: Withhold at 4.25% of federal taxable distribution (you must have been born after 1945 to choose this option)
- Nebraska: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- North Carolina: Withhold 4% of federal taxable distribution
- Oklahoma: Withhold 5% of federal taxable distribution
- Oregon: Withhold 8% of federal taxable distribution
- Vermont: Withhold 30% of federal income tax amount withheld
- Virginia: Withhold at 4% of federal taxable distribution

Section B: Voluntary State Income Tax Withholding

If you are a resident of a jurisdiction not listed above, that state will allow you to determine whether you want state income tax withheld from your non-periodic annuity distributions.
