Please complete the sections below that are applicable to your state income tax withholding elections. If you do not return this completed form, we will automatically withhold state income tax from your annuity distributions based on the default requirements for your state of residency. You may elect to not have state income taxes withheld only if your state of residence allows such an election.

Please note the following:
The completion of this form is optional for clergy members receiving a distribution from their 403(b) tax-deferred annuity (i.e. RSVP, SVO, TSA) but is required of clergy for distributions from any other account.

Section A: Mandatory State Income Tax Withholding
Complete this section if you legally reside in one of the states listed below. If you do not legally reside in one of the states listed below, please proceed to Section B.

The following states generally require income taxes to be withheld from periodic annuity distributions made to an individual if federal income taxes are withheld from those payments:

• Arkansas
• California
• Connecticut1
• Delaware
• Georgia
• Iowa2
• Kansas
• Maine
• Massachusetts
• Michigan3
• Nebraska
• North Carolina
• Oklahoma
• Oregon
• Vermont
• Virginia

Although withholding is generally required if federal income taxes are withheld, some states allow residents to affirmatively elect to NOT have state income taxes withheld even if you have elected federal income tax withholding. If you reside in one of the following states, you may elect to not have state income taxes withheld by electing "No, do not withhold state income tax" below:

Arkansas, California, Delaware, Georgia, Michigan3, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, or Vermont

Residents of Arkansas, California, Delaware, Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Vermont, or Virginia:

State of residence for tax purposes:

☐ Yes, withhold state income tax

☐ Married ☐ Single

☐ No, do not withhold state income tax

I understand that I may check this box only if I reside in one of the states listed above that allows me to elect to not have state income taxes withheld or if I have elected not to have federal taxes withheld.

1 Residents must complete and return the actual State of Connecticut Form CT-W4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or may elect to have 6.99% state income tax withheld.
2 Residents of Iowa can only elect to withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution for annuity payments.
3 Residents born before 1948 are generally not required to have income tax withheld on annuity payments and should complete Section B.
If you reside in any of the following states, you must check the corresponding box for your state of residence for tax purposes:

- Connecticut Residents: Withhold at 6.99% of federal taxable distribution (Connecticut residents have the option to check this box or complete the actual State of Connecticut Form CT-W4P)
- Iowa Residents: Withhold at 5% of federal taxable distribution
- Michigan Residents: Withhold at 4.25% of federal taxable distribution

Section B: Voluntary State Income Tax Withholding
If you are a resident of a jurisdiction not listed above, that state will allow you to determine whether you want state income tax withheld from your periodic annuity distributions. Please complete this section if you want to have state income taxes withheld for your state of residence. If you do not legally reside in one of the states listed below, please proceed to Section C.
